Group Home Revolving Loan Fund

Current Language

s. 20.435 (6)(gd) and s. 46.976(2)

Proposed Change

Repeal s. 20.435(6)(gd) [numeric 629] and s. 46.976(2) and transfer the cash balance from s. 20.435(6)(gd) to s. 20.435(7)(md) [numeric 791].

Effect of the Change

This change would transfer a one-time cash balance of $100,000 PR to the Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment (SAPT) Block Grant aids appropriation. The revenue is SAPT funding. The one-time funds will allow the Department to provide enhanced reach-in and release services to women who are being released from prison and their dependent children under the age of 18.

Rationale for the Change

Under 45 CFR 96.129 (of 1993), the State was required to establish and provide for the on-going operation of a revolving fund to make loans for the costs of establishing programs for the provision of housing in which individuals recovering from alcohol and drug abuse may reside in groups of not less than six individuals. The State was also required to provide not less than $100,000 for the revolving fund. Loans made from the revolving fund could not exceed $4,000 and each loan must have been repaid within 2 years. The federal Children's Health Services Act of 2000 makes this provision optional.

The Department's experience, to date, has been that individuals requesting information about the program were not interested once it became clear that this program was a loan that needed to be repaid and not a grant. No funds have been expended from this appropriation and the SAPT revenue will be returned to the block grant appropriation for use in a high priority initiative.

Subject: LRB Section 1 of 1416 OUT

Cathleen/ Debora:

Per our conversation, please pull Section 1 & 2. of LRB-1416, "Eliminate group home revolving loan fund" but retain Section 9221.

NOTE to LRB: Pulling section 1 of this draft will correct a ch. 20 error that LRB identified. This draft was to have repealed s. 20.435(6)(gd) and moved the unencumbered balance to s. 20.435 (7) (md). Because of our failure to do file maintenance, 20.435(6)(gd) is still in ch. 20. With section 1 of the draft pulled, 20.435(6)(gd) and will remain in ch. 20 with $100,000 PR annually but the intent to transfer that amount to 20.435.(7)(md) will remain.

NOTE to SBO: The narratives or file maintenance in agency 435 related to this item do not need to be changed.

Thanks so much,
